

Park County Board of County Commissioners
Special Meeting
Monday, July 10 2017

Chairman Livingston opened the Public Hearing of the Board of County Commissioners of Park County, Wyoming, on Monday, July 10 2017. Present were Chairman Lee Livingston, Vice Chairman Loren Grosskopf, Commissioners Joe Tilden, Tim French, Jake Fulkerson, and Clerk Colleen Renner.

Commissioner Grosskopf led the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Chairman Livingston thanked all involved in the process of creating the budget. First Deputy Hans Odde read the high points in the County Clerk's Budget Message.

Chairman Livingston requested comments from the public, there were none.

Commissioner Grosskopf noted that the Park County Library has more cash than originally estimated. Frances Clymer, Park County Library Director, requested permission to keep that money to purchase books, as there is no county money allocated for them now. Chairman Livingston noted that the zero balance budget, adopted three years ago, does not allow individual departments to retain cash carry forward. This topic will be discussed more at the adoption of budget.

Commissioner French made a motion to close the Public Hearing, Commissioner Tilden seconded and the motion carried.

Adjourn.

Commissioner Grosskopf made a motion to adjourn, Commissioner French seconded and the motion carried.
