Agriculture Producer Research Grant Program – due July 19

The Wyoming Department of Agriculture announces the creation of a new grant funding program developed to foster funding for applied agriculture research projects that focuses on practical results that can be implemented by Wyoming producers to enhance agriculture in Wyoming. Total dollars available are $200,000.

Are there some ideas you would like to research in cooperation with a UW scientist? Call them up and make a plan ASAP!

UW Research & Extension Center Open House

UW Research and Extension Center – Powell will hold an Open House on Friday, July 19. The schedule will be tailored to producer needs this year. Producers will be able to choose which sessions they attend. Registration on site will be at 3:30 p.m. with programs beginning at 4p.m. and continuing until 7 p.m. when dinner will be served. More details available at a later date.
